

"God grant that I may see the stitch until my dying day, And when my last short thread is clipped and scissors tucked away, the work that I have done, live on, that other folk may see the pleasure I have known Lord, from the skill you gave to me.

Author Unknown